

About the Instructor – PRT

Bill Baxter, PMP

Bill has an undergraduate degree in Mechanical Engineering from Stanford University, and an MBA in Finance from Columbia University. He worked in the aerospace defense industry for nine years, doing stress and vibration analysis of flight-weight hardware. After business school, he worked in the IT industry: Product marketing at Anixter, Sales Engineering at MCI, Engineering Design as Telecommunications Practice Lead at OWP/P (now part of Cannon Design), and Data Center Strategic Planning at UBS AG. Project management was an overlay skill that Bill applied in many of his different roles. Bill is an active volunteer with the PMI Chicagoland Chapter, as project manager for the partnership with Black Diamond Charities, which provides project management fundamentals training for Veterans.
